A GLIMPSE OF THE GREAT YOGIRAJ GURU SHREE SHANTIVIJAI MAHARAJ

Guruji's birth was a memorable one. He was born on Vasanth Panchami in the year 1890 A.D. to humble parents in a small hamlet in Rajasthan. His sacred thoughts and noble actions even at a tender age signified the supreme and divine soul in him. He took Diksha as Jain Saint at the yearly age of sixteen and lived the life of recluse all long keeping himself away from society and luxury. His mental frame was always engrossed in deep, contemplative meditation under severe penance in the chilly region of Mount Abu. He strove hard to liberate the Atma from the cycle of rebirth 'Om Shanti' was his password to attain eternal bliss.

Very soon Guruji possessed super natural powers and an ocean of knowledge.

He was the personification of peace, plenty and prosperity and preached the principles of Jain Philosophy to millions of devotees. He was conferred the title of Jain Acharya, who loved all and lived for all living beings, and become popular as "Abu Ke Yogiraj". His devotees varied from several kings, nobles, foreigners, intellectuals, wealthy to common folks of humanity. Guruji attained Nirvan at Achalagarh (Mt. Abu) in the year 1943 A.D. leaving behind a generation of people to follow his enlightened path.
